

Jean- François Kammer

Deputy of the Permanent Observer Mission of the Sovereign Order of Malta to the United Nation in Geneva

1946- Born in Geneva

1974- Bar Exam of the Canton of Geneva

1975- Lawyer at the Swiss Auditing Company

1976- Legal Expert at the International Committee of the Red Cross

1977- 1979 Entry in the Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs and traineeship in Berne and Tunis

1979- 1982 Diplomatic Collaborator at the Directorate for International Law

1982- 1985 First Secretary at the Embassy of Switzerland in Moscow

1985- 1989 Counsellor at the Embassy of Switzerland in Paris

1989- 1993 Head of the Francophonie Office at the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs in Berne

1993- 1998 Deputy Head of the Swiss Delegation to the OSCE in Vienna

1998- 2000 Ambassador, Commissioner of the 27th International Conference of the Red Cross

2000- 2004 Ambassador to Ukraine and Moldova

2005- 2010 Ambassador to the Czech Republic

2005-2011 Ambassador to the Holy See (non resident)

2010- 2011 Permanent Observer of the Council of Europe to the United Nations in Geneva

2011- Retired from the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs in Berne

2011- Deputy Permanent Observer of the Sovereign Order of Malta to the United Nations in Geneva

Religion: Roman Catholic. Married to Cornelia Kammer, two children Oliver and Alexandra